

Go-go gadgets

THE LATEST PRODUCTS ON THE MARKET

1

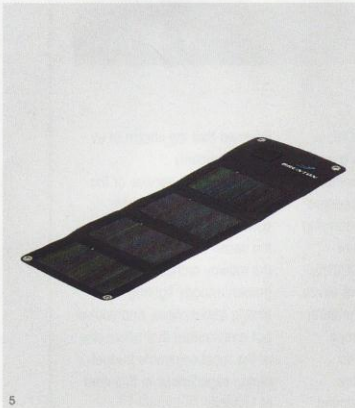

2

3

4

5

6

1 Made for sharing

FlexiShareTrade is a new app that helps investors keep track of their shares and the market in order to make the most out of their portfolio. The app provides intuitive analytical tools and in-depth information, allowing you to make informed financial decisions.

Free-£19.95 per month from www.flexisharetrade.co.uk

2 Eggcellent

Ecoegg is an alternative to washing powder, great for travellers on the move. The clever, egg-shaped gadget can be used in a sink when hand washing clothes or placed into the drum of a washing machine in a launderette and each egg lasts for up to 720 washes.

£19.99 from www.ecoeggonline.com

3 Close shave

Staying groomed on the move is easier than ever following the introduction of the new USB shaver from travel accessory expert Go Travel. The shaver takes up minimal space inside a case or laptop bag yet will help to ensure that you always look your best when travelling.

£15.99 from www.go-travelproducts.com

4 Blast from the past

Using the exclusive GPO brand, ProTeX have recreated telephones from the art deco styling of the 1920s and 1930s up to the solid, classic GPO 1960s and 1970s range. And unlike the original models, the Classic Rotary Telephone is fully compatible with all current networks.

£49.99 from www.protex.com and selected retailers

5 Here comes the sun

Brunton's Solaris 2W and 4W are solar-powered chargers that re-energise gadgets via a USB port, charging up a smart phone in just three hours in full sunshine. The perfect camping and adventure gadget, it uses the latest CIGS solar cell technology that is super-thin, durable, bendable and folds up neatly so you can tuck it into your briefcase or rucksack.

£135-£175 from www.brunton.com

6 Power ranger

Energenie's Remote GSM Controlled Power Socket cleverly lets you remotely power plugs on and off via a mobile phone, by sending a simple text message no matter where you are in the world.

£149.99 from www.energenie4u.co.uk